ITALIAN MARBLE COLLECTION

The perfect amalgamation of Italian marble into HD ceramic tiles, is everything that our novel concept 'ENDMATCH' is all about. This hybrid concept has the best of both worlds, marble & ceramic tiles. What is otherwise not feasible in Natural marble, ENDMATCH makes it possible for design and pattern continuity; resulting in a plethora of options for our valued customers to choose from

GREY FLURRY

ROSSO DELT FANTASTIC

Ideal for both indoors & outdoors, these make great flooring or even counter tops. Served in a range of fiery beautiful shades that are regal as well as playful.

EXTERIOR

Exteriors can often be tricky to choose tiles for, as they can make or break a deal. Thus, serving the best of options in unglazed materials with a textured finish in order to avoid slipping. The wide variety of options are all ideal for outdoor mosaics and making good first impressions.

INTERIOR

Tiles are not only popular for their usual functionalities such as cleanliness and dense durability, but they also help set an ambience and a mood in any given space. Whatever may be your personal style or preference, there are myriads of designs and options to choose from. Be it modern, traditional or contemporary in design, tiles never fail to impress.

KITCHEN

Apart from being visually appealing, the array of designs available for kitchens also prove to be highly competent functionally. Easy to clean, non-absorbant, wear-resistant and long lasting are what these tiles are designed to be.

BATHROOM

The versatile options for bathroom tiles are enough to satisfy various languages of design, be it modern, traditional or simply impeccably clean. Not only are the aesthetically pleasing but are also packed with important qualities such as being hygienic, easy to clean and resistant to water absorption.

KIDS WAY

A child's room is typically clad in multitudes of colors and is almost an in-house playground. Presenting a range of designs that are specially made to please your little one's choices of colours, prints and patterns. While being vibrant and quirky, these tiles are scratch and stain resistant as well as durable in nature.

BUSINESS

When it comes to corporate spaces, tiles play a major role in setting the mood and look of it. They never cease to make an impression of being sophisticated, clean and professional. As these spaces are usually vast in area, the tiles available in the business range are bigger in size and classier in design.
